

Zelle Hofmann Continues to Expand Commercial Litigation Practice with Addition of Nick Dolejsi in Minneapolis

October 3, 2013

Zelle Hofmann Voelbel & Mason LLP is pleased to announce the expansion of its commercial litigation practice with the addition of Nick Dolejsi as an associate in the firm's Minneapolis office.

For the past four years, Dolejsi has represented clients in litigation matters involving commercial disputes, construction and real estate disputes, product liability actions, professional liability, and entertainment law.

"Nick is one of Minneapolis' top up-and-coming attorneys and his addition embodies our continued commitment to providing quality service to our clients," said Dan Millea, office managing partner of Zelle Hofmann's Minneapolis office.

Dolejsi has a finance degree from the University of Kansas and he graduated cum laude from Hamline Law School in 2009 after receiving the Presidential Scholarship, a full academic scholarship. While in law school, he was a Constance L. Bakken Fellow and received CALI Awards (Top Performer in Class) in Corporate Finance, Professional Responsibility, Taxation of Business Entities and Criminal Procedure. He joins Zelle Hofmann as a former associate with the law firm of Lommen Abdo.
