

The Legal 500 Ranks Zelle Among Top Antitrust Civil Litigation/Class Action Law Firms for the Ninth Consecutive Year

June 2, 2017

For the ninth consecutive year, The Legal 500, the world's largest legal referral guide, has ranked Zelle as one of the top antitrust civil litigation/class action firms in the United States.

The Legal 500 recognizes Zelle for its “first-rate reputation acting for plaintiffs in opt-out and class action litigation, significantly strengthened its antitrust practice in 2016 with the addition of five lawyers from the now-defunct Dickstein Shapiro, who joined the firm’s newly opened Washington DC office. One of the hires was James Martin, who co-chairs the antitrust practice with Judith Zahid. Martin acted as co-lead counsel to 11 opt-out plaintiffs, who reached a $400m settlement with Dow Chemical in Re Urethane Antitrust Litigation. In another matter, the firm is acting for United Healthcare in a pay-for-delay case against Cephalon involving sleep disorder drug Provigil. Other recent areas of work have spanned areas such as packaged seafood, lithium-ion batteries and CRTs. Jennifer Hackett (Washington DC), Christopher Micheletti and recently promoted partner Qianwei Fu are recommended.”
