

Jason Reeves and Deepa Sutherland Quoted in Human Rights Due Diligence for Climate Change Impacts Webinar Series Report

Human Rights Due Diligence for Climate Change Impacts Webinar Series Report

January 20, 2021

On October 1, 2020, Jason Reeves and Deepa Sutherland, of the London office of Zelle, presented a webinar on “Human Rights Due Diligence for Climate Change Impacts.” The webinar was hosted by the British Institute of International and Comparative Law. A post-webinar report of their presentation provides an overview of the discussions contains the written version of their presentation. Click here to read “The Insurance Industry and Climate Change.”