

Laura Bartlow Elected to Minnesota Women Lawyers' Board of Directors

April 30, 2021

Laura Bartlow, a senior associate in the Minneapolis office of Zelle, has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors of Minnesota Women Lawyers. Laura will serve a two-year term.

Laura's practice includes complex commercial litigation, insurance coverage and defense, employment litigation and counseling, and other business disputes. She has expertise in all aspects of the litigation process, from motion practice, discovery, and trial to appellate matters and alternative dispute resolution.

Minnesota Women Lawyers (MWL) is an association of more than 1,200 attorneys, judges, law students, legal employers and others who are dedicated to advancing the success of women attorneys and striving for a just society. Since its inception in 1972, MWL has provided opportunities for members to develop as leaders, network with other attorneys, and have an impact on their communities by fostering a greater satisfaction within the profession. MWL continues to address the changing needs of women in the legal profession through initiatives that are guided by their mission and values.
