

Zelle Attorneys Cited in Grantham Research Institute's 2023 Global Trends in Climate Change Litigation Policy Report

July 10, 2023

On June 29, 2023, the Grantham Research Institute (GRI) on Climate Change and the Environment released its annual 2023 Global Trends in Climate Change Litigation Policy Report. This influential report is an authority on climate litigation, widely read and cited by civil society organizations, policymakers, lawyers, judges, financiers, scholars and media worldwide.

Deepa Sutherland, counsel in Zelle's London office, and Dennis Anderson, senior associate in Zelle's Minneapolis office, were cited in the report for their article on US climate litigation: "Big Oil Certiorari Denial May Alter Climate Change Litigation." (Law360, April 26, 2023)

The Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change and the Environment in London is a world-leading center for policy-relevant research and training on climate change and the environment.
